PRELATE'S JUBILEE

First Bishop Appointed by Pope Leo Celebrates Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

Indianapolis, May 12.—The celebration of Bishop Chatard's silver jubilee began today with early morning mass, said by Cardinal Gibbons in the chapel of St. Agnes academy. At 10 o'clock distinguished visitors and resident clergy donned their robes at the parish house and marched in a body to St. John's church. Twenty-five purple robes appeared in the procession. Rev. James E. Quidey, archbishop of Chicago, preached the sermon. This afternoon a large banquet was given at the Columbia club, attended by 300 persons. The pope has called Bishop Chatard his congratulatory on the bishop's silver jubilee. Chatard was the first bishop appointed by Pope Leo XIII.

Cardinal Gibbons at the banquet spoke of the number of distinguished Indianapoliens he had met and added: "It has been my pleasure for some time to know the senior senator from Indiana and I was my pleasure this morning to have the honor of meeting the junior senator. I have often heard it said there was much presidential timber in Indiana and I hope some day to have the honor of saying that on this day I sat with a president of the United States."

AFTER WEALTHY BREWER

Effort Being Made to Have St. Louis Millionaire Arrested in France.

St. Louis, May 12.—Judge Dockery, at the request of Circuit Attorney Falk, officially requested Secretary Hay to use his good offices with France to have Ellis Walworth, a St. Louis millionaire brewer, arrested and returned to St. Louis to stand trial on charge of bribery. The indictment was in connection with the franchise of the Suburban railway, in which Walworth was a director.

Washington, May 12.—Judge Advocate General Davis has rendered an opinion at the request of General Crozier, chief of ordinance, relative to construction of the bill providing for exchange of arms of militia for the use of the army. There was an apparent conflict between the new militia law and the appropriation act. The opinion holds that the change of arms is available for supplying arms as for other military purposes.

The state department has satisfied itself that the United States is not in violation of the international law in respect to the new militia law. The United States consul at that point had it on him that he regarded trustworthy authority that the United States was not in violation of the international law in respect to the new militia law.

This leaves Robert M. McLean, Democratic candidate, with a plurality of 586. He will be inaugurated May 19. Republican managers still declare their purpose to contest the right of McLean to hold the office.

CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS.
Atlanta, Ga., May 12.—The convention of charities and corrections closed tonight. He spoke of the importance of the nation and said the continuance of that prosperity depended largely upon the individual. "Unless the average individual in our nation has to a high degree qualities that command respect," he said, "we cannot expect to deserve it or to keep what it brings and our future is in my opinion well assured from the very fact that there is a very high quality in the character of the average American citizen."

NO NEW RURAL ROUTES.
Washington, May 12.—Postmaster General Payne today announced there would be no more establishments of rural free delivery postal service until July 1. This is a result of the investigation of post-office affairs and of the discovery that at the present rate of increase in the number of rural free delivery offices, the cost of the service by the end of this fiscal year, Payne estimated that the total number of routes fairly entitled to be established in the country was 3,000 and that at the present rate of increase this would be reached two years hence.

APPROVED LIBEL BILL

Pennsylvania Governor Gives Reason.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 12.—Governor Pennypacker gave the new libel bill today and at the same time issued a long statement giving reasons for the action. The bill goes into effect immediately and repeals all laws inconsistent with the new act.

The governor says in his statement that the questions raised by the bill are of a very grave importance and affect large business interests, freedom of speech and press, right of citizen to be informed concerning current affairs and conduct of the government, as well as his right to protect his reputation and home from injuries that rise from careless or negligent as well as malicious false reports.

The governor claims that the bill is in the terms of the measure which prevents any newspaper from making such comments upon legislative measures or upon the official acts of state, municipal, county or public officers as are proper information for the public or are in line of legitimate public discussion.

The governor cites many instances justifying the enactment of such laws as the States have been murdered since in each instance the cause was easily traceable to inflammatory and careless newspaper utterances.

After recounting these and other instances of "bad journalism" the governor says: "If such abuse of privileges allowed to the press is to go unchallenged; if such tales are permitted to be poured into the ears of men and to be profitable, it is idle to contend that reputable newspapers can maintain their purity."

Concluding the governor says: "Since the laws of God and nature are immutable and inexorable, unless means are found to suppress some of the tendencies of modern journalism the influence of the press, which has been so potent an agent in the development of civilization and securing of civil liberty, will be gone forever."

THE GOVERNOR SAYS: "The bill in its application is not confined to officials, but affects as well the citizen or business man whose conduct constitutes no part of the right of the public to information. A corporation officer who has been falsely charged with crimes, a manufacturer who has been falsely accused of being a drunkard or a woman whose domestic affairs have been unjustly exposed, or whose chastity is improperly suspected, a student who has been falsely accused of murder, a clergyman who has been cruelly maligned, a quiet citizen whose peace of mind has been destroyed by publication of untrue stories, a merchant whose credit has been affected by groundless rumors, sufferers from reckless but not necessarily malicious publications, are given the right, not to prohibit publication, but to recover damages which they have sustained, provided they prove negligence or lack of care on the part of the publishing newspaper."

"This bill may be the best possible legislation, but the purpose is commendable, and should experience show it to be defective something better may be devised. It ought to be cordially and cheerfully accepted by the responsible press, and by the citizenry, and the law should be enforced. It threatens them with no danger. Seeking to utter the truth and not falsehood, what have they to fear?"

He also says that many years experience on the bench has led him to the conclusion that crimes are more properly committed by the reckless of the press, and that in certain classes of cases, among them murder, the accused were at times convicted or acquitted before they reached the court room. He claims damages provided for by the bill follows the ordinary rule of damages for want of reasonable care and that no harm can come from the provision in the bill requiring that the names of owners, proprietor, publisher and managing editor be printed with each issue of a newspaper published in Pennsylvania.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION

Omaha Business Men Enjoined From Attempting to Disrupt Unions.

Omaha, May 12.—Judge Dickinson of the district court today issued an injunction against business men and proprietors even more sweeping than that issued by the federal court against unions last week. It forbids any business man from refusing to sell goods to dealers who employ union labor, prevents them from cutting union labor, requires the Business Men's association to cease holding meetings or conferring with unions, or in any way interfering with unions in the management of their affairs. It also enjoins them from bringing any other injunction suits or actions in pursuance of any conservative plan of prosecution to bring up labor unions or of any new or similar plans conceived directly or indirectly with any existing plans.

Judge Dickinson signed the order with one condition, and it is being served on persons against whom it is directed to night. The situation is now considered a most serious one. With nearly 3,000 men on strike or locked out and a large number of business men and proprietors closed business is almost at a standstill.

Judge Dickinson, who issued the injunction, has been on the bench ten years and is considered one of the most able and conservative judges in the state. His decisions on points of equity before the law have been considered as authoritative by the legal world.

St. Paul, May 12.—General Ward's reply to demands of Great Northern trainmen was delivered today to the union. It was a reinforcement of arguments in support of his position and of concessions offered and an appeal to the men to accept the compromise. The committee after an executive session decided not to reply to Ward's letter. A committee from the St. Paul Jobbers' union and the Minneapolis chamber of commerce will meet with the committee and railroad men to try to bring about a compromise to harmonize matters and avert, if possible, a strike, which they deem would be disastrous to business interests of the northwest. Meantime both sides are preparing for the worst.

TO BE JOINT STATION.

C. P. & St. L. Will Use Excellent Terminal Facilities of the J. & St. L.

By an agreement reached Tuesday between W. E. Crane, general manager of the J. & St. L., and H. W. Grider, general manager of the C. P. & St. L., the present J. & St. L. passenger station will be used by both roads commencing May 15. This announcement will meet with universal approval as the C. P. & St. L. has long needed such facilities as the J. & St. L. is now able to provide.

The time of arrival and departure of trains on the two roads is such that one station will provide ample accommodations for passengers without any congestion.

Mr. W. E. Crane, stated that the arrangement would be effective May 15 and that until a change in track is made the C. P. & St. L. trains will use the J. & St. L. tracks. Mr. Grider said he counted the J. & St. L. station as ideally located and did not think his company could make better facilities even if they were to build a new station. The management of the J. & St. L. made liberal terms in the agreement on account of the benefits to accrue to the people of Jacksonville and because of the friendly relations existing between the two roads.

The C. P. & St. L. freight office will be maintained at the present location and some changes will be made in the building to its convenience in the handling of freight.

The past year was favorable to the sale of harvesting machinery and John W. Hall & Sons sold 45 McCormick machines, including grain binders, mowers, hay rakes and corn binders.

The following testimonial was received from John W. I purchased a bottle of Harts' Honey and Borehound, and am pleased to say I am now well. I advise anyone suffering from throat or lung affections to use this valuable remedy. I can not recommend it too highly." Sold by Lee P. Alcott, druggist.

The ground is breaking hard and heavy in the central and northern district and considerable difficulty is encountered in properly preparing the soil for the planting of corn. Plowing continues in active progress, but the work must be expedited as the ground is becoming so hard that it is difficult to get the seed in.

"Previous reports with regard to injury to fruits from frost on the 1st appear to be confirmed, in most instances, but many orchards will bear a decreased yield. Fruit in the northern district, on account of undeveloped stage at time of occurrence of frost, is probably in a better condition than in the southern districts. Strawberries and grapes were probably more seriously damaged than the other fruits."

Garden continue in a backward stage and are now suffering for rain. Early potatoes in the southern district were generally nipped by frost on the 1st.

PHI NU SOCIETY

Open Meeting Given at the Women's College Tuesday.

The Phi Nu society of the Women's college held their annual open meeting Tuesday afternoon and a most excellent program was rendered. The arrangements and preparation for the open meeting this year were made by the committee on the occasion of the founding of the society in 1901 and is soon to be celebrated and the invitations to this meeting were limited to only the immediate friends of the society and members of other literary societies in the city. Before the time set for the meeting to be called to order the society hall was well filled and at 4 o'clock the president, Miss Ethel Wyley, stepped forward and the roll was called by the secretary, Miss Dell Stevens. The program opened with a piano solo by Miss Leta Clark, whose playing is always heard with much pleasure. The "Anthem" was read by Miss Leda Ellsbury, who designated her paper "The College Bugle," and she had woven into her recital of the various strange and peculiar happenings of the year. The college much that was laughable and most entertaining. The impromptu talk was made by Miss Bess Harker and the subject was "The Fifty Years of Phi Nu." She prefaced her remarks by saying she could hardly account for the entire fifty years of grand work done by Phi Nu, but she had seen an active member for some time past. She reviewed to some extent the history of the society work and spoke of the plans for the coming anniversary. Misses Julia Romas and Ella Dehler sang a duet in a most acceptable manner. Their voices were well suited to each other and that their efforts were greatly appreciated by the audience was evidence in the hearty applause accorded them. An essay, "Girl Life, as Portrayed by Tennyson," had been written by Miss Hazel Hilsbeck, but because of her illness Miss Sarah Davis read the article. It was replete with many new thoughts and her work showed a most careful study of the writings of the great poet Tennyson. Miss Jane Johnson delighted the audience with a selection entitled, "Picked a Nelly," which was spoken in a most finished manner, and her character interpretations gave evidence of a thorough understanding of her piece. "A Review of a Week," was the subject of an original poem by Miss Ethel Starkey, whose ability in this line has been tried on previous occasions, and this effort was an exceptional production for in every line there was wit and the little incidents about college life were told in a most clever manner. This number was followed by a piano solo by Miss Mabel Barlow, who plays with much expression and her number was heartily applauded. After a short recess the program closed with a debate, the question for discussion being: "That trade unions are a detriment to society." The affirmative leader was Miss Anne White, who was assisted by Miss Louise Capps. Miss Lola Young was the leader of the negative side and was assisted by Miss Alta Charles. The debate was most interesting and although one on which much preparation was necessary, yet the argument of the question showed that the debaters were thoroughly posted and their discussion was most interesting as well as profitable. In summing up the points, the merits were awarded to the affirmative and the ability went to the negative. This closed one of the most entertaining programs given at the school for some time and the flourishing condition of the society at the present time was made thoroughly evident to those who heard yesterday's program. IN MISS CHAMBERS' HONOR. Miss Grace Carter gave a Salma-gundi party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Eleanor Irwin Chambers. The guests were invited to the home of Miss Grace Carter, who was assisted by Miss Louise Capps. Miss Lola Young was the leader of the negative side and was assisted by Miss Alta Charles. The debate was most interesting and although one on which much preparation was necessary, yet the argument of the question showed that the debaters were thoroughly posted and their discussion was most interesting as well as profitable. In summing up the points, the merits were awarded to the affirmative and the ability went to the negative. This closed one of the most entertaining programs given at the school for some time and the flourishing condition of the society at the present time was made thoroughly evident to those who heard yesterday's program. HERMAN'S SPECIAL REDUCTION SALE OF MILLINERY NOW IN PROGRESS IS CREATING GREAT EXCITEMENT. WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Tuesday was the twenty-eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Fell and Mrs. Fell, who is an enthusiastic, earnest worker for the South Side mission, determined upon a rather unique plan which would commemorate the important event referred to and at the same time benefit the South Side mission. Friends of the mission and of Mr. and Mrs. Fell were cordially invited to attend a social at their home Tuesday evening and in spite of the bad weather there was a large attendance. Excellent refreshments were served, for which a small charge was made and the substantial proceeds will be given to the treasury of the mission. The mission was one of unusual pleasure and Mr. and Mrs. Fell received the most sincere congratulations because of the anniversary so happily celebrated. INJURED AT HIGH SCHOOL. While assisting in lifting the piano from the floor on to the platform of the chapel at the high school building Tuesday morning Milton Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Jackson, of South Clay avenue, was severely injured. Just as the piano was raised on a level with the stage those who were helping in the raising lost their holds and it slipped back to the floor and in doing so struck Jackson, who was standing between the stage and the side wall, bruising his head quite severely. Dr. M. A. Halsted was at once called and after a partial examination had the young man removed to the home of his parents. Here a more careful examination was made by the physician and an X-ray was taken. The injury was so serious as to indicate that he could not be relied on for serious results will follow, although the escape from very serious injury seems quite remarkable. Mr. Jackson is a member of the center class at the high school.

ELECTRIC DEAL ON

St. Louis Syndicate May Buy Jacksonville Electric Railway System.

Mr. Price Neves, manager of the Municipal District Heating company, of St. Louis, was in the city Tuesday in consultation with Miss Frances Hook, relative to the purchase of the Jacksonville Electric railway. Mr. Neves was seen by a reporter last night and stated that he was here in the interests of St. Louis capitalists who are engaged in building interurban electric lines at various points, and that the syndicate is very favorably impressed with the opportunities offered in this locality, not only for the purchase and extension of the present city electric system within the corporate limits of the city, but also for the building of a line east and west of here, connecting on the east with Springfield and on the west with Winchester. The syndicate is sensible to the value of the present system and franchise for such purposes as the above, although a carrying into operation of such plans would necessitate a complete rebuilding of the trackage, etc., as the rolling stock for such long distance lines would necessarily be much heavier and would therefore require a heavier rail and more solid road bed. The syndicate represented by Mr. Neves is extensively interested in public utilities and should they come to satisfactory terms in the matter of the above, their operations might assume proportions considerably larger than their present movements indicate. It is understood that another meeting between Mr. Neves and the representatives of the local line will be had to day and should they come to any agreement as to the matters involved, Mr. Neves intimated that he would speak more at length regarding the plans of the gentlemen he represents.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

Springfield, May 12.—The weekly crop bulletin of the weather bureau for Illinois was issued to day. It is not particularly encouraging and summarizes the situation as follows: "There was a gradual increment of mean temperature during the week, but why be strong from frost on the 1st, to summer like conditions the latter part. The average temperature for the week was slightly below normal. Light to heavy frosts occurred in the latter part of the week, but no serious injury to vegetation or fruits ensued. Except in the southern district, where light showers occurred the first part of the week, there was an almost total lack of rain. The deficiency of precipitation for the week will average about one inch, and this together with the cool weather, retarded the growth of vegetation to an appreciable degree. The conditions have been very unfavorable for the prosecution of farm work. "Wheat is showing further deterioration and but few correspondents report any improvement during the week. The weather was unusually cool weather the first part of the week growth was seriously retarded. Many fields are losing color and the crop look yellow. Some localities are showing with Hessian flies on the chinch bugs. "Oats are not in a promising condition. Some are under adverse circumstances with regard to weather and conditions, generally, the ground was waterlogged or arrested and the crop in most instances is showing an uneven stand. A warm rain at this stage is needed. "The ground is breaking hard and heavy in the central and northern district and considerable difficulty is encountered in properly preparing the soil for the planting of corn. Plowing continues in active progress, but the work must be expedited as the ground is becoming so hard that it is difficult to get the seed in. "Previous reports with regard to injury to fruits from frost on the 1st appear to be confirmed, in most instances, but many orchards will bear a decreased yield. Fruit in the northern district, on account of undeveloped stage at time of occurrence of frost, is probably in a better condition than in the southern districts. Strawberries and grapes were probably more seriously damaged than the other fruits. "Garden continue in a backward stage and are now suffering for rain. Early potatoes in the southern district were generally nipped by frost on the 1st."

PHI NU SOCIETY

Open Meeting Given at the Women's College Tuesday.

The Phi Nu society of the Women's college held their annual open meeting Tuesday afternoon and a most excellent program was rendered. The arrangements and preparation for the open meeting this year were made by the committee on the occasion of the founding of the society in 1901 and is soon to be celebrated and the invitations to this meeting were limited to only the immediate friends of the society and members of other literary societies in the city. Before the time set for the meeting to be called to order the society hall was well filled and at 4 o'clock the president, Miss Ethel Wyley, stepped forward and the roll was called by the secretary, Miss Dell Stevens. The program opened with a piano solo by Miss Leta Clark, whose playing is always heard with much pleasure. The "Anthem" was read by Miss Leda Ellsbury, who designated her paper "The College Bugle," and she had woven into her recital of the various strange and peculiar happenings of the year. The college much that was laughable and most entertaining. The impromptu talk was made by Miss Bess Harker and the subject was "The Fifty Years of Phi Nu." She prefaced her remarks by saying she could hardly account for the entire fifty years of grand work done by Phi Nu, but she had seen an active member for some time past. She reviewed to some extent the history of the society work and spoke of the plans for the coming anniversary. Misses Julia Romas and Ella Dehler sang a duet in a most acceptable manner. Their voices were well suited to each other and that their efforts were greatly appreciated by the audience was evidence in the hearty applause accorded them. An essay, "Girl Life, as Portrayed by Tennyson," had been written by Miss Hazel Hilsbeck, but because of her illness Miss Sarah Davis read the article. It was replete with many new thoughts and her work showed a most careful study of the writings of the great poet Tennyson. Miss Jane Johnson delighted the audience with a selection entitled, "Picked a Nelly," which was spoken in a most finished manner, and her character interpretations gave evidence of a thorough understanding of her piece. "A Review of a Week," was the subject of an original poem by Miss Ethel Starkey, whose ability in this line has been tried on previous occasions, and this effort was an exceptional production for in every line there was wit and the little incidents about college life were told in a most clever manner. This number was followed by a piano solo by Miss Mabel Barlow, who plays with much expression and her number was heartily applauded. After a short recess the program closed with a debate, the question for discussion being: "That trade unions are a detriment to society." The affirmative leader was Miss Anne White, who was assisted by Miss Louise Capps. Miss Lola Young was the leader of the negative side and was assisted by Miss Alta Charles. The debate was most interesting and although one on which much preparation was necessary, yet the argument of the question showed that the debaters were thoroughly posted and their discussion was most interesting as well as profitable. In summing up the points, the merits were awarded to the affirmative and the ability went to the negative. This closed one of the most entertaining programs given at the school for some time and the flourishing condition of the society at the present time was made thoroughly evident to those who heard yesterday's program. IN MISS CHAMBERS' HONOR. Miss Grace Carter gave a Salma-gundi party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Eleanor Irwin Chambers. The guests were invited to the home of Miss Grace Carter, who was assisted by Miss Louise Capps. Miss Lola Young was the leader of the negative side and was assisted by Miss Alta Charles. The debate was most interesting and although one on which much preparation was necessary, yet the argument of the question showed that the debaters were thoroughly posted and their discussion was most interesting as well as profitable. In summing up the points, the merits were awarded to the affirmative and the ability went to the negative. This closed one of the most entertaining programs given at the school for some time and the flourishing condition of the society at the present time was made thoroughly evident to those who heard yesterday's program. HERMAN'S SPECIAL REDUCTION SALE OF MILLINERY NOW IN PROGRESS IS CREATING GREAT EXCITEMENT. WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. Tuesday was the twenty-eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Fell and Mrs. Fell, who is an enthusiastic, earnest worker for the South Side mission, determined upon a rather unique plan which would commemorate the important event referred to and at the same time benefit the South Side mission. Friends of the mission and of Mr. and Mrs. Fell were cordially invited to attend a social at their home Tuesday evening and in spite of the bad weather there was a large attendance. Excellent refreshments were served, for which a small charge was made and the substantial proceeds will be given to the treasury of the mission. The mission was one of unusual pleasure and Mr. and Mrs. Fell received the most sincere congratulations because of the anniversary so happily celebrated. INJURED AT HIGH SCHOOL. While assisting in lifting the piano from the floor on to the platform of the chapel at the high school building Tuesday morning Milton Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Jackson, of South Clay avenue, was severely injured. Just as the piano was raised on a level with the stage those who were helping in the raising lost their holds and it slipped back to the floor and in doing so struck Jackson, who was standing between the stage and the side wall, bruising his head quite severely. Dr. M. A. Halsted was at once called and after a partial examination had the young man removed to the home of his parents. Here a more careful examination was made by the physician and an X-ray was taken. The injury was so serious as to indicate that he could not be relied on for serious results will follow, although the escape from very serious injury seems quite remarkable. Mr. Jackson is a member of the center class at the high school.

ELECTRIC DEAL ON

St. Louis Syndicate May Buy Jacksonville Electric Railway System.

Mr. Price Neves, manager of the Municipal District Heating company, of St. Louis, was in the city Tuesday in consultation with Miss Frances Hook, relative to the purchase of the Jacksonville Electric railway. Mr. Neves was seen by a reporter last night and stated that he was here in the interests of St. Louis capitalists who are engaged in building interurban electric lines at various points, and that the syndicate is very favorably impressed with the opportunities offered in this locality, not only for the purchase and extension of the present city electric system within the corporate limits of the city, but also for the building of a line east and west of here, connecting on the east with Springfield and on the west with Winchester. The syndicate is sensible to the
